

1023-Z1-517

Aldo R Maldonado* (aldo.maldonado@gmail.com), 15300 Cadoz Dr., Austin, TX 78728.

Models in my head "How a blind student sees graphs and their equations".

In this talk I will describe my limited experience with blind students regarding how some blind-from-birth students see graphs and equations while learning College Algebra. Rather than generalize the purpose of this qualitative effort is to try to improve teaching for disabled student in general and for blind students in particular. (Received September 15, 2006)