
We will remind algorithm-Z, and show how it is used in proving q-binomial theorem bijectively. Then we will present a generalization with one more parameter, and show how this generalization proves q-Gauss summation formula bijectively. We will discuss current related projects and open problems as time allows. (Received September 20, 2010)